It is 100% forgivable as long as you follow guidelines – in other words it is free money to help keep you going for up to 8 weeks."

Brethren Woods, VA Ch of the Brethren	April 10	YES	$90,000	NO, part of the Shenandoah District CoB	"It is helping to take care of the people who work hard and who are already making a sacrifice to do what they do."
Camp Alexander Mack, IN Ch of the Brethren	April 13	April 17	$76,100	NO, owned by their District.	"My rationale for taking the PPP: We have an obligation to our staff. Camp is a ministry, and the people who work in the ministry give up a lot to be part of it. These folks do this willingly without reservation. In the midst of a crisis we need to take the opportunity to support them in whatever way we can. If we are forced to lay off staff, they will be eligible for unemployment. Since we do not withhold unemployment taxes, we are obligated to pay that portion of the unemployment compensation. This is a lose-lose-lose. We have to pay; we lose the work of the employee; the employee loses the purpose of the work. There are no obligations incurred that would require us to compromise our faith and ideals (see attachment). Even if we don't qualify for forgiveness of the loan, we only have a 1% interest rate and are able to protect our assets. Good stewardship. I have had to answer some questions for our Board, but they were satisfied after the meeting." ~ Gene Hollenberg
Camp Alta Mons, VA United Methodist	April 14	Not yet, but approved	$47,000	Yes	"Jim Pearman, our Board Chair, knows LOTS about money. He did the paperwork for Alta Mons and for the Mountain Valley Charitable Foundation (local Shawsville non-profit). If you have questions or need help, I feel like he would help you because he is generally nice and he knows you love Alta Mons. His office phone number is 540-444-2930 and his e-mail is james@partnersinfinancialplanning.com."
Camp Blue Diamond, PA Ch of the Brethren	April 6	YES	$58,000	YES	"Up to 25% can be used for utilities, the rest must be used for payroll - which is a great help. Good luck friend. We hope you can get some money. Call if you have questions."
Camp Carmel, NC Ch of the Brethren	April 17	Not yet		YES
Camp Chanco, VA Episcopal D of EastVA	April 14	Approved, not received	$77,000	YES, have their own EIN	"We also applied for the EIDL with $10K up front money (April 8). I have a friend in Tennessee who applied for EIDL on 3/31 and received $10K in his bank account, with no notification of any sort, on 4/20. You may quote me in telling your district that you are way behind the eight ball and should apply YESTERDAY!"
Camp Dickenson, VA United Methodist (Holsten Conference)	April 6		$1Mil+, for entire Conf.	Conference umbrella for 5 camps	"A person with financial training and knowledge is the best equipped person to get the most out of this application process."
Camp Hanover, VA Presbyterian	April 7	YES	$77,400	Yes	"We applied for the PPP through our local bank, TowneBank. Our Presbytery applied a day or two after us, through their bank, Bank of America, they have not not received any indication that they have been approved or if there are funds available. We also applied for the EIDL on the same day we applied for the PPP. That is directly through the Small Business Administration. We have heard nothing from the SBA about it since. The final page of the submittal process was sort of a "thanks for submitting, don't call us, we'll call you" thing."
Camp Harmony, PA Ch of the Brethren	April 3	YES	$48,000	Both. Have their own EIN, but owned by District.	#SpreadTheHarmony
Camp Highroad, VA United Methodist	April 4	Not yet, but approved	$220,000	Yes	"Highroad: this was the easiest thing I have ever had to fill out. Opening a bank account or getting a drivers license is more cumbersome!! We never got "board approval" or "corporation approval" as our intention is this will be a "grant/donation" and not a loan."

Other Camps/Organizations that have applied for the 2020 PPP Loans:

Camp Ithiel, FL Ch of the Brethren	April 14	Not yet		?	"Our DE is encouraging our congregations to apply if they need help. I help a new church start with their local church bank, bb&t, which is swamped and not taking PPP applications any longer. I check back daily.
Camp Koinonia, WA Ch of the Brethren	April 8	YES	$27,000 PPP $6,000 EIDL	NO, owned by PNW District
Camp Mardela, MD Ch of the Brethren	April 8	April 24	$9,200	YES (Mid-Atlantic District)	Small camp, only one year-round employee (Gieta). Mardela Board approved on April 6. Their D.E. was "all for it"
Camp Overlook, VA United Methodist	April 13	Yes	$30,000 for 3 staff	NO, owned by their UMC District	"We applied early last week and have received $30,000 to cover payroll for 3 staff members. When the next round comes out I hope to apply for some to bring some of my summer staff on no matter if we have campers or do virtual camp. We are technically owned by the denomination but operate with our own board of directors. If you have other questions let me know. Blessings."
Camp Swatara, PA Ch of the Brethren	April 7	Not yet, but approved	$67,300	YES	"This has been an arduous endeavor. For about two weeks, I was back and forth with our bank rep up to several times a day between phone and email. I will say, it took a significant amount of self-advocating to move the process along as banks did not, may still not, have together their process, separate from the government, on how to manage disbursement. I think by now they have the government information on how they (the bank) are getting refunded by the government, which in the beginning is what stalled most banks to have the confidence to issue the loans. Remember, if used for payroll, mortgage interest, and utilities, in 8 weeks from issuance from the loan, you are forgiven - nothing to be repaid - it is a grant. Peace to you."
Caroline Furnace, VA Lutheran	April 7	Not yet	$39,400	YES	"Definitely recommend you file with a local community bank - the big banks are too automated and not transparent. Everyone I know that applied with a smaller local community bank got their loan approved quickly."
Global Youth Village, VA	April 4	Not awarded before $$ ran out		independent 501 c3 non profit	"we set our loan request at the level we knew could be forgiven given specification of the PPP loan. We did not want to incur debit by taking on a loan that could not be fully forgiven. That being said, by the time we added up payroll and other allowable overhead expenses for a couple of months, it added to up to a sizable amount of $."
Inspiration Hills, OH Ch of the Brethren	April 9	April 16	2.5 months avg 2019 payroll	NO, owned by District	"We asked for 2.5 months of our average payroll costs from 2019 (our payroll company provided the documentation. We are owned by our district-the DE had to sign the documents as well. Suggestion-apply right now before the funds are gone, use your own banking institution, and make sure you have the name and email of the SBA loan officer!"
Massanetta Springs, VA Presbyterian	April 6	April 14	"full amount requested"	YES	From my limited experience, success with PPP is largely dependent on your banker/bank. Ours was amazing. I've heard stories of banks less motivated/helpful/informed, and their clients have struggled in the process. If you've already applied, and the bank hasn't communicated with you, a good question to ask is "Do I have a number with the Small Business Administration?" another is "Have funds been allocated?" If they can answer yes to those questions, it's likely just a matter of waiting for your final loan paperwork to be finished at the bank. Once that is done, and you sign it, the funds come quickly. (Ours about 30 minutes after the last paperwork was signed on April 10.)
Nature Camp, VA	April 21	Not yet	2.5x payroll March 1-June 30, 2019	Their own 501(c)3	"I don't remember where I saw it, but I read that seasonal businesses can use this period as their payroll basis. (We employ only two people except during the 10-week summer operating season.) I'd be happy to try to answer any additional questions you may have. Good luck, and I hope you're doing well during these troubled times."
Phoebe Needles, VA Episcopal D of SWVa	April 15	Not yet		YES
TIC Day Camps, VA Independent for profit	April 4	Not yet	$200,000	Independent for profit camp	"I was informed yesterday from my bank that I was approved through them and they would submit to SBA as soon as more funds became available. "To date United Bank has received well over 6,000 applications, and at the end of last week we had approved 3,100 applications."
Williamsburg Christian Retreat Center, VA	April 8	Yes	$82,000	YES	"It was a relatively smooth process, which had a lot to do with our bank's readiness to handle the PPP loan. Hope this helps."
